

The Organisation

MedReAct is a non profit organisation dedicated to improve the state of the Mediterranean marine ecosystems, with campaign activities across the region.

Our mission is to catalyze actions on critical measures that can improve the state of Mediterranean fish stocks and marine ecosystems.

Our goal is to promote decision and practices that are no longer based on the recovery of fish stocks and marine biodiversity, ultimately restoring the health and resilience of the Mediterranean Sea.

Our approach is to analyze problems, identify driver for changes and propose solutions.
